

Fig 1 . Survival (white lower band) and cumulative mortality from prostate cancer (black upper band) and other causes (gray middle band) up to 15 years after diagnosis stratified by age at diagnosis (column) and Gleason score (row). Percent of men alive can be read from the left hand scale, while percent of men who have died from prostate cancer or from other causes during this interval can be read from the right hand scale.

